Down Syndrome SA warmly invites families of people with Down syndrome to join our bi-monthly family meetings at the Ridleyton Office. These gatherings are a chance to connect, network, and support one another in a welcoming environment.

Each session will be guided by our DSSA Information and Connection Consultant. Together, we aim to foster a collaborative community and provide families with access to essential information and support tailored to all life stages of people with Down syndrome.

Our first session, scheduled for January 30, 2025, will focus on identifying and discussing attendees' specific needs.

Future topics may include:

- Behavioural Support
- Medical Information
- Self and Supported Advocacy
- Puberty and Relationships
- Work Experience and Employment
- The Education Journey

With opportunities for:

- Guest speakers, including people with Down syndrome
- Presentations on selected topics
- Peer-to-peer information sharing
- Informal conversations

Families with children under the age of five are welcome to bring them along. Complimentary tea, coffee, and light refreshments will be available.
