

Money Handling and Budgeting for Life

Would you like to learn more about the value of money, keeping it safe, setting up and managing your own budget, or any other money handling skills?

Orana has developed an individualised and flexible skills development program designed to cater to your needs. This program focusses on working with you to identify where your current skills are at in relation to money handling and budgeting before helping you to further develop these skills in a practical and fun environment.

This program is suited to people of all levels of literacy. You will receive a workbook and certificate upon completion.

Who can participate? Anyone with appropriate NDIS funding. You can also self-fund if required.

Who delivers this training? Orana has Developmental Educators and Client Development Coordinators who will spend time with you one on one to help you to learn more about money, your spending habits and to help you set up a budget that will work for you.

When can this training start? As soon as you are available. Our staff can arrange a time that suits you.
