

Learning for my L's

Would you like help to prepare for your learner's permit test?

Orana has developed an individualised and flexible skills development program designed to increase your knowledge and confidence with basic road rules. We can provide you with one-on-one help and practical tips to best prepare you for your driving theory test.

This program is suited to people of all levels of literacy. You will receive a workbook and a certificate upon completion.

Who can participate? Anyone with appropriate NDIS funding. You can also self-fund if required.

Who delivers this training? Orana has Developmental Educators and Client Development Coordinators who will spend time with you individually to help you feel more confident in understanding basic road rules.

When can this training start? As soon as you are available. Our staff can arrange a time that suits you.
